

composition: a video art making workshop with Jordan Deal

Thursday, November 21st, 9:55 - 11:10 AM
McCabe 320

In this workshop, video/performance artist and musician Jordan Deal will introduce students to their video art practice and its ethical use of archival or found footage. They will also guide students through the process of editing their own footage using Adobe Premiere.

Jordan Deal, Seas, which are then lavished and graced by the efforts of delusion [still] (2023).

* Jordan Deal, also known as ROSEKILLJUPITER, is a Philadelphia-based multidisciplinary practitioner, performance artist, & alchemist. Their investigative practice uses performance, sound, image, & their body as a conduit between unseen forces & the materializations of socio-political structures & mythologies. They have been awarded a 2023-2024 artistic fellowship at the Leslie-Lohman Museum, & were a fall 2022 research fellow at Amant Foundation in Brooklyn. Deal's films have been in Blackstar Film Festival (Philadelphia), Indie Fest (Los Angeles), & the Paris Film Festival.
